May 2006 - Halifax Chronicle-Herald - Information was provided regarding the visit of Stephen Leahey and Bill Casey, MP, to Ottawa. Mr. Leahey and Mr. Casey met with ACOA minister Peter MacKay, Canadian Heritage Minister Bev Oda, and Ms. Oda's Parliamentary Secretary, Jim Abbott, all of whom expressed interest in and support of the project. They also met briefly with the prime minister, and with Senator Lieutenant-General Roméo Dallaire (the Pugwash Peace Exchange's Honourary Patron), and both offered their encouragement.

June 15, 2006 - The Globe and Mail - An editorial was written regarding Kim Campbell's efforts to draw attention to the issue of the threat of nuclear weaponry. Ms. Campbell is part of the Middle Powers Initiative, which is headed by the Chair of the Pugwash Peace Exchange's Advisory Council, retired senator Douglas Roche, O.C.
