

WHAT IS THE PUGWASH PEACE EXCHANGE?

The Pugwash Peace Exchange will be an exciting new interpretive, educational and research facility, based on the history and work of the Pugwash Conferences, Cyrus Eaton's historical role, and the ongoing need for peace in our world. Our visitors will learn about the remarkable history of the Pugwash Conferences, the ongoing threat of nuclear proliferation, and how people are working to eliminate this threat, making the world safer for all.

The Pugwash Peace Exchange will provide a serene and thought-provoking forum for all generations to learn, to open their minds, and to be inspired towards creating a more peaceful world.

By becoming a member of the Pugwash Peace Exchange, you will be connected to worldwide efforts to create a more civil society.

In helping to build this tribute to peace, you will enable education, conferences, discussions, and decision-making processes that will change our world for the better — now, and into the future

HOW YOU CAN HELP

You can show your support for the project by joining the Pugwash Peace Exchange Society for just $10 per year, entitling you to vote at the Annual General Meeting, and to receive newsletters and other correspondence. You will also be invited to attend events with notable guest speakers.

As a member, you will experience the satisfaction of knowing that you have helped create a facility that will teach the vital message of peace. With your help, we can inspire all generations to strive towards a more peaceful world.
